"I was really surprised by this game as it was not very powerful and just gave me a turn off. Another thing was the fact that there was a lack of a story and a real world to be felt in this game. I believe it could've been so much better if it had been a good MMORPG and not a game from 100hrs playtime. Even though I disliked the game as a whole, I have to say this is my favorite of the series. This game certainly does not deserve the reputation it has because it did not get the role of good, it is a really amazing game if you try to play it all out of the way" -Mira Elden Ring review on Amazon - link here:

But there are quite a few things to keep in mind before you buy. The most obvious problem is this is an offline game. It isn't like most modern MMOs that offer all the good stuff you want offline. The basic story and quests are fun, but I'm already tired of a single character plot. I spent so much time during the weekend that I didn't get any further in my quest to become a bff6bb2d33

As this question suggests, you don't need a batch of holiday cookies to make this list. Rather, these selections will draw inspiration from your Holiday Cookie crop: Carefully select all of your best cookies and use them to create your master batch. Add 6 cups of the cookie dough to a parchment paper-lined 13x18" sheet tray Knead in white sugar, then cinnamon sugar and nuts. Roll in remaining sugar, pressing firmly to work in the cinnamon-sugar crumbles. Use a piping bag to make fine, decorative lines on your cookies Bake at 350 degrees F for 12-15 minutes. Test with a knife to see if the dough is fully cooked, then transfer to a wire rack to cool.

CROQUEMBOUCHE PRETZELS In a food processor, combine 5 cups Flaky, Chewy Shortbread Cookies and $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sweet white chocolate. Pulse until the cookies look like large chunks of shortbread dough. Wrap in plastic wrap and refrigerate for at least 30 minutes and up to 1 day. Brush the bottom of an 8" x 8" pan with unsalted butter. On a lightly floured surface, roll out one-fourth of dough to fit the pan. Transfer the dough to the prepared pan. Repeat with the next three batches of dough. Refrigerate for 30-45 minutes, or until dough is firm. Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Cut the cookies with a sharp knife into 1-inch squares and press together gently. Bake the cookies until dry and firm, about 13-16 minutes. Remove from pan and cool on a wire rack. In a food processor, combine the remaining $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sweet white chocolate and $\frac{1}{4}$ cup (1 oz) water and cook and process until smooth. Set aside. In a large deep mixing bowl combine the granulated sugar, cocoa powder, cocoa paste, xanthan gum, and salt and mix well. Slowly add the $\frac{1}{3}$ cup of butter and continue mixing until the dough is coarse, clumps or crumbles when pinched, but comes together when pressed. Fold in the chocolate ganache, then transfer the dough to an oiled bowl and cover with plastic wrap. Let it stand for 20-30 minutes.
